A BETTER EDUCATION. THE CHOICE IS YOURS.

YOU PROVIDE:

> A conference room
> An LCD projector
> 45 minutes or more
> Four or more colleagues who want to learn more about HighSight

WE PROVIDE:

> A box of coffee and a box of bagels
> A HighSight director
> A HighSight alum
> A presentation, with time for Q&A
> Information on events, volunteering, and other ways to support HighSight

NO PRESSURE, NO OBLIGATION:

> The primary goal is to create more people who know about HighSight... and who might one day be HighSight champions.
> We will not make a solicitation for funding at the presentation.
> It doesn’t need to be breakfast...we can do this in any setting, any time of day.

HighSight is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing opportunities for low-income students at private high schools in Chicago. In addition to high school scholarships, scholars are provided intensive tutoring, mentoring, leadership development, and college-readiness programs to enable their success. HighSight has grown from seven scholars in 1992 to serving more than 275 students annually, securing over $5 million in college scholarships for scholars each year.
